WILLIAM FOSTER IS ILL WITH PNEUMONIA

William Foster, blacksmith, who has been operating the Dan Robb shop for some time, was taken ill with pneumonia Monday, and is now confined to his bed. Last night the patient's condition took a turn for worse, but this morning he had rallied, and from reports, the danger period had been passed. Foster is well known in Tonopah, having arrived in this camp during its infancy.

LAST MINUTE NEWS

DEATH WAS ACCIDENTAL

TULARE, Feb. 2.—The killing of a sixteen-year-old Mexican lad on the Floyd Billings ranch, near Tulare, was the result of an accident, is the belief here. Three brothers having two rifles of small caliber, were in a cotton field. The youngest, in broken English, told Sheriff Smith that his older brother was shot when he tried to ascertain the cause of a shell sticking in his gun.

DOESN'T LIKE PRISON

OAKLAND, Feb. 2.—James Garrett, a negro trusty doing six months at the city prison for petty larceny, yesterday suddenly disappeared. He was engaged in brightening up one of the police automobiles in the yard when he concluded to jump the job.

NEGRO WOMAN A CANDIDATE

CHICAGO, Feb. 2.—The first negro woman to be a candidate for Alderman in the City Council of Chicago is Mrs. Lulu M. Sims. She is a candidate in the Fourteenth Ward, once the stronghold of the late Roger C. Sullivan, noted Democratic leader.

AMERICAN LEGION OREGON AGAINST JAPANESE MENACE

(By Associated Press.)
MEDFORD, Ore., Feb. 2.—At an open meeting last night of the local American Legion post, attended by members of the G. A. R., Spanish War Veterans, the city council, Mayor Gates, representative business men and orchardists, plans were laid to resist the reported intention of several hundred Sacramento valley Japanese to settle in the Rogue River valley.

DIVIDE MINER IS INSTANTLY KILLED THIS MORNING

Fred Ranger, top carman at the Tonopah Divide Mining company, in Divide, was instantly killed this morning at 8 o'clock while being hoisted from the 1000-foot level. Ranger, who had gone to the 1000-level, was on his return to the surface and had gotten into the car and about 20 feet from the bottom of the shaft he evidently stuck his head out from the cage and was caught between the timbers. The wedge thus formed stopped the cage from its upward journey, and it is thought the impact caused Ranger's body to fall a distance of 50 feet into the sump. The body was mangled and several bones were broken by the force of the fall.

LONDON JAZZ DEAD SAYS AN AUTHORITY

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, Feb. 2.—The jazz is dead in London, says P. J. S. Richardson, one of the foremost English authorities on dancing. He declares that no new dances will be popularized this year, but the fox-trot, one-step and tango, which have held international interest for two or three seasons, will be standardized.

Previously taught the same dances by different teachers found themselves hopelessly at sea when they tried to dance together," he said. "Through standardization, on which the majority of dancing instructors in London have now agreed a common framework in the steps will be insured without eliminating all chance of introducing individual variations. Freakish and eccentric light gymnastic such as exaggerated forms of jazz, are rapidly passing out."

CHRISTIAN CONFERENCE OPENS AT ST. LOUIS, MO.

(By Associated Press.)
ST. LOUIS, Mo., Feb. 2.—The first of a series of international conferences, looking toward unification of all Christian denominations, will open here tomorrow, with prominent churchmen present from various sections of the country.

Similar conferences are scheduled to be held at Dallas, Texas, February 3 to 7, and at Cleveland and Baltimore, respectively, in Easter week.

Methods of effecting harmony and cooperation among the Christian sects will be the paramount issue before all the conferences, according to the Rt. Rev. F. F. Johnson of this city, confederator bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Missouri, and chairman of the arrangements committee.

MAKES RECORD ON AN OLD LINOTYPE

(By Associated Press.)
SUMMIT, S. C., Feb. 2.—Making a speed record on a 16-year-old linotype that had seen continuous service, part time in day and night shifts, was the unique achievement of Frank Patton, machinist-operator of the Summit Daily Item in winding up the old year. Patton's performance consisted of setting 3114 lines of seven-point type, 13 ems, on an eight-point slug, in a few minutes less than six hours, or an average of 518 lines an hour, on an old model No. 5 linotype, erected in 1904. There was no fat or pick-ups of any sort in the copy which was run-of-book, consisting of local news. Associated Press copy report, correspondence and reprint, part of a typewritten and part of a manuscript in handwriting. Typesetting experts have classed Patton as MM among the first three speeders of the entire country as his hourly average of figures in company with the best speed records ever made in this country over a period of several hours and especially in seven-point composition.
